2010 Recipient

Evelyne B. Andretta, SIOR Retired The Krauss Organization

The 2010 SIOR Foundation “Millie” is awarded to Evelyne B. Andretta, SIOR Retired, in recognition of her outstanding leadership and influence in the field of commercial real estate.

Evelyne was the first woman to serve on the SIOR Board of Directors, and in 1999 received SIOR’s prestigious Howell Watson Distinguished Service Award for outstanding service to SIOR through exceptional volunteer leadership, participation and involvement in SIOR programs and activities, and contributions to the industry.

She is Past President of the SIOR Florida Chapter, past owner of J. L. Hearin, Inc., founder of the first Cushman & Wakefield office in Tampa, and was Florida’s first female SIOR.

Evelyne is also a Tampa community leader, serving on many charitable and civic boards of directors. She has two sons who are both SIORs -- Gregory Andretta, SIOR and Richard R. Andretta, SIOR – and a daughter, Denise Andretta.

The Award presentation will be held at the 2010 SIOR Fall World Conference in San Antonio, during the Friday General Session, October 22, 2010, at 11:00 am.
